

UK REACH

315,000+

young people annually

4,500,000+

young people have participated in a YE programme over the last 55+ years

39%

of secondary schools engaged are in the 30% most deprived areas of England and Wales*

8,450+ teachers supported in:

1,483

primary schools (7%)

85

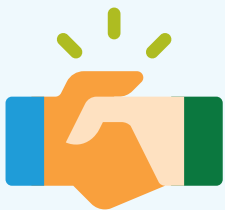

colleges (33%)

1,617

secondary schools (39%)

20

universities (15%)

6,000+

business volunteers

90+

local volunteer boards

105

countries worldwide. We are part of the JA Worldwide network

* (as identified by the Indices of Multiple Deprivation)

Find out more at:

www.young-enterprise.org.uk

www.young-money.org.uk

UK IMPACT

94%

for three years running, our Company Programme alumni are likely to be EET compared to the national average of 89%*

97%

of YE volunteers found it rewarding sharing their career knowledge and skills with young people

93%

of teachers would recommend a YE programme

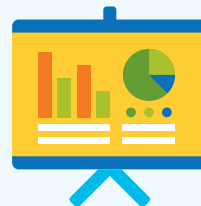

92%

of teachers stated YE programmes challenge young people to develop employability skills

£20

average cost per young person learning experience

98%

of teachers felt better equipped to support young people developing financial capability after training from Young Money†

EET (Employment, Education, Training)

*This is based on current ONS destination data that was released on 13 February 2018.

England and Wales only.

†What Works for Financial Education – Impact of Teacher Training Young Money and University of Edinburgh Business School, 2018.

Find out more at:

www.young-enterprise.org.uk

www.young-money.org.uk

A Member of JA Worldwide

