

Needs - Essentials

Things we need are about our basic survival.

A need is something that is essential; something that you really cannot do without.

Wants - Luxuries

Things we want are not essential for our survival.

A want is something that you would like, but can do without.

