

GRID FOR GOOD PATHWAY

Do you want to make a difference? Passionate about Climate Change?
Interested in opportunities within the energy sector and aged 16-24 years old?

Become part of a 'Net Zero Workforce' with National Grid and sign up for our Young Enterprise Grid for Good (GfG) Programme to get you on the right pathway.

Insight session

An introduction to National Grid, their recruitment process, apprenticeships and possible careers in the energy sector.

Upskilling session

Focus on your interview skills learning STAR method answers and top tips for being recruited.

Career Coaching/Mentoring

Career coaching sessions with Grid staff to discuss; opportunities, development, career aspirations and what's happening in National Grid.

Apprenticeships

Access to apply for apprenticeships within National Grid and receive updates on their opportunities to start your career.

Sign Up to the Grid for Good Programme

Sign up with your teacher to take part in the Grid for Good Programme.

Teambuilding session

Take part in a real-life team assessment task 'The Plane Crash' and demonstrate your problem solving skills.

Recognition & Progress

By taking part in the GfG pathway you will have a raised awareness of careers within the energy sector, developed your employability skills, achieved a programme certificate of completion and gained further access to apply for development opportunities within National Grid.

Work Experience application

The opportunity to apply for either virtual or onsite work experience at a Grid near you.

SCAN THE QR CODE
Find out more: The Job That Can't Wait | National Grid - YouTube

